

JOJO FLETCHER, 26

After fans said she looks like a new person, JoJo denied having a face transplant – but what about something less extreme? “She’s gotten Botox,” Philadelphia-based plastic surgeon Dr. Lyle Back says of the former Bachelorette. “It opened up her gaze to reveal her eyes more.” Other tweaks that could be at work: lip fillers, rhinoplasty and a brow lift.

LAUREN BUSHNELL, 27

Eagle-eyed Bachelor viewers called out Ben Higgins' fiancée for lip fillers. Dr. Back agrees that she's plumped her pout, and he thinks she got Botox as well. “She needs to be careful,” he says. “She has a hint of that startled look going on.”

ASHLEY IACONETTI, 29

The Season 19 Bachelor and Bachelor in Paradise alum has admitted to getting Juvéderm in her lips, as well as Dysport (which works like Botox) in her forehead and around her eyes. “I know it's the last thing I need,” she admits. “But I do it because I like it!”

LEAH BLOCK, 26

“She looked better before,” NYC plastic surgeon Dr. Steve Fallek says of Leah, whose fuller lips sent fans – and her fellow Bachelor in Paradise castmates – into a frenzy. “They appear overinflated,” adds Michigan-based plastic surgeon Dr. Danielle DeLuca-Pytell. Leah's response? “I got temporary lip fillers, big flippin' deal!”

ANDI DORFMAN, 30

The Season 10 Bachelorette chalks up her new look to aging and weight loss, but Dr. DeLuca-Pytell begs to differ. “Her nasal tip is shorter and narrower, and her upper lip looks a little ‘ducky,’” she says. “She may also have gotten cheek fillers – her face looks more sculpted.”

IS BIGGER BETTER?

RAVEN GATES, 25

There's something different about Nick Viall's runner-up. (OK, two things!) “It looks like she's had very large breast implants placed on top of the muscle,” says Philadelphia-based plastic surgeon Dr. Kirk Brandow. Raven confirms the news to In Touch, revealing she got implants and saying, “I'm proud of it.”
